Got Homework?

All of the Sno-Isle Libraries' resources are accessible online at www.sno-isle.org/homework, or at any of the 21 Sno-Isle Libraries branches. Sno-Isle Libraries homework resources include:

- Online, real-time access to trained tutors from 1:00 pm to 10:00 pm every day.
- Access to dozens of trusted online resources through one simple search engine.
- Email and real-time help from librarians for your research needs.
- Searchable newspapers and magazines articles.

HelpNow:

HelpNow from BrainFuse is a service that Sno-Isle Libraries offers via www.sno-isle.org/homework. HelpNow provides real-time, online tutoring in math, science, social studies and English.

The service connects students in third grade and above with trained tutors seven days a week from 1:00 pm to 10:00 pm.

OTHER RESOURCES:

24/7 eResources:

Connect to more than 70 specialized online databases to provide authoritative information on a wide variety of subjects. Content in these databases often goes well beyond what is offered on other web sites. You'll also have access to hundreds of worldwide newspapers and magazines on every imaginable subject.

360 Search Engine

360 Search is a simple, easy-to-use interface that is similar to the popular internet search engines and allows you to log in just once to search across a wide variety of high quality, trusted resources.

Digital Media Library

Download documentaries, movies, music, and books on your reading or research subject.

Connect to Librarians Online

Email your questions to get a response within two business days from Sno-Isle Librarians. You can also connect 24/7 via chat and get answers in real time, from professional reference librarians around the world

Reference services in local branches

Sno-Isle Libraries has an amazing team of reference librarians ready to help you with any research questions you have. Come into your library and the librarian at the Reference Desk will help you find print and online information to complete your homework assignment.
